EXPLANATION.

THE three principal Figures of the above Engraving on Wood, represent England, Scotland, and Ireland receiving the Offerings of Genius, alluding to the Premiums of the Society of Arts, &c. being lately extended throughout the United Empire.

The Medallion of his present Majesty in Front of the Pedestal on which England is seated, marks the Era when this Extension took place. The three distant Figures are Symbols of Arts, Manufactures, and Commerce, denoting the Objects from whence the Society took its Name.

The Scroll, the Plough, and various Implements in the Fore Ground, allude to Polite Arts, Agriculture, and Mechanics, which have been peculiarly encouraged by the Society.
